ORDER:

In the reference read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has stated that the Superintendent of Police, Prakasam, has informed that on 30.3.2007 at 11:25 Hrs when Sri K.Jayaraj, HG 459, was on SSC Examination Bandobust duty at Z.P. High School, Yenuguladinnepadu Village, three unidentified CPI Maoists armed with fire arms went there and one of them opened fire on the Home Guard from the main entrance of the School, and the said Home Guard shouting loudly about the arrival of Maoists ran into Head Masters Room with a view to save his life, as well as to alert the ARPC on bandobust duty. The Superintendent of Police, Prakasam, has also stated that the two CPI Maoists chased the said Home Guard into the Head Master's Room and opened fire on him causing multiple injuries on his head, face, eye, chest, stomach and left arm, due to which the individual collapsed on the floor, and thereupon the Maoists left the place thinking him dead. The Superintendent of Police, Prakasam, has also stated that the Home Guard was admitted in the Hospital and a case in Cr. No.22/07, U/s 447, 333, 506, 307 r/w 34 IPC and other sections was registered. The Superintendent of Police, Prakasam, has further stated that now the Home Guard has come up with a representation stating that in the above said incident, he lost his eye and also left hand is not working and some of the pellets are still embedded in his body and that he also belongs to Scheduled Caste Community and financially backward and requested to provide Junior Assistant job considering his educational qualification as he is unable to maintain the family with meager salary in his present condition.

3. However the left eye was saved and the individual could see with spectacles. Further as per the educational certificates, the individual qualified in Intermediate and completed B.A., but Degree certificate was not enclosed. Therefore, he is eligible for the post of Junior Assistant, if his case is considered. In a similar case, where a Home Guard belonging to Mahabubnagar District was injured in Naxalite attack while on duty, his case was considered by the Government and issued orders appointing him as an Attender in G.O. Ms. No.43, Home (Services.III) Dept, dated 3.3.2006 by relaxing relevant Rules as a special case and a supernumerary post was created in the District Police Office, Mahabubnagar, to accommodate the individual when there is no vacancy in the category. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, A.P., Hyderabad, has, therefore, requested the Govt. to consider the request of Sri K.Jayaraj, HG – 459, of Prakasam District sympathetically for appointment as Junior Assistant as a special case in
